

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

SERIAL NO.: 08/160,965

FILING DATE: 12/02/93

APPLICANT: JAMES M. MUSSER, ET AL.

TITLE: VACCINES CONTAINING CYSTEINE PROTEASE
AND METHODS TO PROTECT AGAINST GROUP A AND STREPTOCOCCI

١٠٠

DOCKET: D-5880

EXAMINER:
SIDBERRY, H.

GR ART UNIT: 1813

RECEIVED

DEC 27 1995

GROUP 1800

Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

LETTER TO THE EXAMINER

As discussed in our telephone conference on December 6, 1995, a Notice of Abandonment for the above-referenced application was mistakenly issued. Applicant timely mailed a Petition for an Extension of Time, a Response to Office Action, and a corresponding Transmittal Letter on October 18, 1995. Enclosed are copies of the Certificates of Mailing for the correspondences. Pursuant to our conversation, Applicant requests that the Examiner revive the above-referenced application.

Applicant does not believe that the revival requires a fee. If any fee is required, the Commissioner is authorized to charge any additional fees to Deposit Account No. 06-2375, under Order No. D-5880/957111.

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being deposited with the United States Postal Service as first class mail in an envelope addressed to Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, Washington, D.C. 20231 on 12/19/95

Susan I. Horr

Susan L. Hoke
Signature

12/7/95
Date

If the PTO requires additional evidence to determine if the correspondence was timely filed, please contact the undersigned for a quick resolution of the problem.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: 12/7/95

By: Thomas D. Paul
Thomas D. Paul
Registration No. 32,714

FULBRIGHT & JAWORSKI L.L.P.
1301 McKinney, Suite 5100
Houston, Texas 77010
Telephone: (713) 651-5151